Hi Merrily,

The transition in Guatemala was great. One of the gate agents helped me clear customs with Osvaldo, we were not able to wait for his bags because time did not permit. But his parents and siblings were super happy to see him.

Osvaldo looked great he was a changed boy! You can see it in his attitude and demeanor he is so much happier and he laughed and smiled the entire time. I remember when I first picked him up he barely said a word to me and never looked directly at me, this is not the case anymore. I'm very happy for him. I know this surgery has changed his life forever and I was super happy to be part of it!
